

PRESIDENT: No objection, the motion is withdrawn. We are back...Mr. Clerk, do you have anything further on the bill, other than the bill itself?

CLERK: Mr. President, I have nothing further on the bill.

PRESIDENT: We are back on the bill itself. Any further discussion on the advancement of the bill? Senator Moore, on the advancement of the bill.

SENATOR MOORE: Mr. President, I move LB 730 be advanced.

PRESIDENT: You've heard the motion. All in favor say...I didn't think I'd get away with that. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay on the advancement of the bill. Okay, the question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 19 ayes, 1 nay to go under call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The house is under call. Will you please record your presence. Those not in the Chamber, please return to the Chamber and record your presence. Unauthorized personnel, please leave the floor, and please return to your desks so that we can have the vote on the advancement of this bill. Please look up to see if your light is on, Senator Wesely. Senator Haberman, thank you. Senator Remmers, please. We are looking for Senator Derks, Senator Ashford. We are looking for Senator McFarland and Senator Ashford. I guess Senator McFarland is the only one we are looking for now. I understand Senator McFarland is on his way. Senator McFarland has arrived, so we are ready for the roll call vote on the advancement of the bill, and reverse order has been requested. So, the question is, shall the bill be advanced? Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 829 of the Legislative Journal.) 21 ayes, 18 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance.

PRESIDENT: The bill fails to advance. Do you have anything for the record, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Yes, sir, I do.

PRESIDENT: The call is raised.
